

General William L. "Spider" Nyland, USMC (Ret.)

General William L. "Spider" Nyland served as the Assistant Commandant of the Marine Corps, Headquarters Marine Corps, Washington, D.C. from September 2002 until September 2005. He retired from active duty 1 November 2005.

General Nyland was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps under the NROTC program upon graduation from the University of New Mexico in 1968. In addition to attaining an M.S. degree from the University of Southern California (1980), his formal military education includes The Basic School (1968), Naval Aviation Flight Training (NFO) (1969), Amphibious Warfare School (1975), Navy Fighter Weapons School (TopGun) (1977), College of Naval Command and Staff, Naval War College (1981), and Air War College (1988).

After being assigned to VMFA-531, General Nyland was ordered to Vietnam where he flew 122 combat missions with VMFA-314 and VMFA-115. In later tours of duty he flew additional combat sorties in Kosovo, Iraq and Afghanistan. General Nyland had multiple operational squadron tours and saw duty as the Congressional Liaison/Budget Officer, Headquarters, U.S. Marine Corps, Washington, D.C. In 1984 he served as the Operations Officer, Marine Aircraft Group-24, 1st Marine Amphibious Brigade, and he then commanded VMFA-232, the Marine Corps' oldest and most decorated fighter squadron, from July 1985 to July 1987.

General Nyland subsequently served as section chief for the Central Command section, European Command/Central Command Branch, Joint Operations Division, Directorate of Operations (J-3), Joint Staff, Washington, D.C. In July 1990, he assumed command of Marine Aviation Training Support Group (MATSG), Pensacola. Following his command of MATSG he assumed duties as Chief of Staff, 2nd Marine Aircraft Wing (2dMAW) on July 5, 1992, and assumed additional duties as Assistant Wing Commander on November 10, 1992. Promoted to Brigadier General on September 1, 1994, he was assigned as Assistant Wing Commander, 2nd MAW serving in that billet until December 1, 1995.

He served next on the Joint Staff, J-8, as the Deputy Director for Force Structure and Resources, completing that tour on June 30, 1997. He was advanced to Major General on July 2, 1997, and assumed duties as the Deputy Commanding General, II Marine Expeditionary Force, Camp Lejeune, N.C. He served next as the Commanding General, 2d Marine Aircraft Wing, MCAS Cherry Point, North Carolina from July 1998 to June 2000. He was advanced to Lieutenant General on 30 June 2000 and assumed duties as the Deputy Commandant for Programs and Resources, Headquarters, U.S. Marine Corps. He next assumed duties as the Deputy Commandant for Aviation on 3 August 2001. He was advanced to General on 4 September 2002 and assumed his duties as the Assistant Commandant of the Marine Corps on 10 September 2002.

Upon retirement he returned to Pensacola, FL where he offers consulting services from his home office. He is a former fellow for the Institute of Defense & Business and served in an instructional role for Duke University (College of Continuing Education) in leadership training performed in support of BAE for four years. He is active as a Senior Mentor for the National Defense University in the "Capstone", "Keystone" and "Pinnacle" programs. He previously served as the Chairman of the Board for the Marine Corps Scholarship Foundation and the Marine Corps Toys for Tots Foundation. He also served as The National Commander for the Marine Corps Aviation Association from Jan 2007 - Jan 2010..

Biography

Master Aircrew (MAcr) Duncan Hide MSc, MCGI

After completing his secondary education at Forres Academy, Morayshire, Hide gained employment as a swimming instructor and life guard prior to joining the Royal Marines in 1986 as a General Duties Marine. His early service saw him deployed on OP BANNER NI and a 6 month ships detachment on HMS Brilliant in support of OP ARMILLA PATROL in the Persian Gulf. In 1991 Hide left the Royal Marines and joined the RAF as Airmen Aircrew, on completion of Initial Air

Electronics Operator Training at RAF Finningley, in 1992 he was posted to 236 Nimrod Operational Conversion Unit RAF Kinloss. In 1993 Hide was posted to 206 Sqn on the Nimrod MR2 as an acoustics operator, where over the next 6 years he progressed to Lead Acoustic Operator status, deploying around the world in support of Operations and gained 3000 hrs on type. In 1999 on promotion to FS, he was posted to 42 (R) Sqn as an Acoustics Air Screen on instructional/operational flying duties and during this time was a member of the Nimrod MR2 Display Team.

In 2001 he was posted to the School of Combat Survival and Rescue (SCSR) at RAF St Mawgan where he was selected to deliver Tri Service Advanced Combat Survival and Recovery Training both in the UK and Overseas. In 2002 as OC Advanced Combat Survival Course he helped to develop and train aircrew in procedures for Joint Personnel Recovery, working closely with US counterparts.

Following promotion to MAcr in Nov 2005 Hide was posted to the Mobile Air Operations Teams (MAOT) as the Section WO, responsible for a specialist joint section, at a time of unprecedented operational activity in support of OP TELIC, OP HERRICK, Instructional Duties, Reconnaissance, Briefing Duties and Standbys. For his work in support of Support Helicopters (SH) on the ground in Iraq and Afghanistan, he received a Commander Joint Helicopter Command's Personal Commendation.

In 2008 he was posted to the Officer and Aircrew Cadet Training Unit (OACTU) as a Flt Cdr on the Non Commissioned Aircrew Initial Training Course, which swiftly saw him assume the post of OC NCA FLT, responsible for the delivery of all NCAITC training and its staff. In 2009 Hide was selected as MAcr Standards and Training Flight at OACTU, responsible for the training, development and standardisation of all OACTU Staff Instructors.

In Jan 2012 he was selected for the post of Director WOSP/Head of NCACMT and was posted to ACS RAF Halton. During this tour he developed and delivered PMD (phase 3 trg) to Sgt/FS/MAcr NCA and was also responsible for the development and education of all newly promoted WO's and MAcr in the RAF.

Following selection for the post of Command Senior Enlisted Leader (CSEL) of NATO's Allied Air Command Hide was posted to HQ AIRCOM, Ramstein Air Base in Mar 2014. He is married to Rachael a Teaching Assistant and has a daughter aged 15 and a son aged 10. His interests include militaria, swimming, fitness training, travel, fine wine and has recently completed an MSc in Leadership and Management.

Warrant Officer Clive Martland BSc (Hons) Cert Ed

Warrant Officer Martland is a Physical Training Instructor (PTI), whose sub-specialisation is as an Exercise Rehabilitation Instructor (ERI).

Born in 1968, Warrant Officer Clive Martland grew up in Preston, Lancashire. A keen sportsman, he joined the RAF in Jan 86. On completion of PTI training, he was posted to RAF Church Fenton, with subsequent postings as a JNCO to RAFs Cosford, Akrotiri and Hereford. Upon successful completion of ERI training in Aug 95, Martland was assigned to the Defence Medicine Rehabilitation Centre (DMRC) Headley Court, where he would serve the first of 3 tours, to date, at the unit.

Promoted to Sergeant in May 97, he enjoyed assignments to the Military Corrective Training Centre Colchester and then as the SNCO PEd Flt at RAF Shawbury; during this latter assignment he completed an Op tour to the Falkland Islands, achieved the Cert Ed qualification and received a 2* Commendation.

On promotion to Flight Sergeant in 2005, Martland returned to DMRC Headley Court as a tutor, responsible for the delivery of Exercise Therapy and Kinesiology and during this tour received a 1* commendation. Assigned to RAF Brize Norton as the Flight Sergeant IC Station Gymnasium in Jun 07, Martland concurrently completed a BSc (Hons) in Sports Rehabilitation, received a 2* Commendation and was awarded the Meritorious Service Medal.

Promoted to Warrant Officer in Jun 10 he returned to DMRC Headley Court as the Trade Specialist advisor for the RAF ERI cadre; during this tour he completed an Op HERRICK detachment. He was assigned to the position of SWO at RAF Brize Norton in Oct 12, in this role he tactfully balances the unique situation of two in command OF 5's and plays a key role in all Royal & Ministerial visits, ceremonial events (including repatriations), as well as encouraging all to maintain discipline and military ethos.

Martland is married to Caroline, with 2 sons at university and a daughter at junior school. He enjoys spending time with his family and in his spare time he participates and watches sport, with an aspiration to learn to play the guitar and improve his golf handicap.

Master Chief Massey then received orders to Helicopter Combat Support Squadron Eleven where he detached with the USS Essex, USS Boxer, and deployed onboard USS Sacramento (AOE 1) earning the Enlisted Surface Warfare designation, and 1996 selection as the Senior Sea Sailor of the Year.

Accepting the challenge of recruiting for the second time he reported back to NRD Indianapolis. Upon arrival, he was advanced to chief petty officer and assigned as the Recruiter in Charge (RINC) of a large metropolitan station. His station was the Large Station of the Year, and he was subsequently selected RINC of the Year. He was later assigned to officer programs where he received numerous awards for excellence in recruiting, and was later advanced to senior chief petty officer.

Master Chief Massey was then ordered to Keflavik Iceland where he served as the Quality Assurance Division Officer, Command Managed Equal Opportunity Officer (CMEO) for COMFAIRKEF and NAS Keflavik, and elected as the NAS Keflavik Chief Petty Officers Association president.

After a successful tour abroad he accepted orders to Naval Air Technical Training Center, where he served as the AZ "C" school Division/Training Officer and CMEO. He earned his Master Training Specialist and was responsible for developing the Aviation Warfare Apprentice Training Course.

Upon completion of his tour at NATTC, he was then forward deployed to VAW 115 Atsugi, Japan where he served as the Quality Assurance Division Officer deployed onboard USS Kitty Hawk (CV 63). During this tour he was selected into the Command Master Chief Program and later reported to NRD Miami as the Command Master Chief. As the Command Master Chief of NRD Miami his Sailors were selected CNRC Sailor of the year, Region East Sailors of the Year twice, and the National Recruiter of the Year.

Recognizing his unique ability to foster relationships and reinforce leadership, he was hand-selected and sent to NRD Atlanta to help re-build their leadership team and reinforce the leadership call to action. His leadership efforts resulted in the selection of the National NSW/NSO, Diversity, Classifier, and Division Leading Chief Petty Officer of the Years.

Master Chief Massey is a graduate of the CMC/COB capstone course class 40, Senior Enlisted Academy Class 122 (Gold), and National Defense University, Joint Forces Staff College SEJPME Course graduate. He is now serving as Navy Recruiting Region East Command Master Chief.

His military awards and decorations include the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, five Navy and Marine Corps Commendation and Achievement Medals, and various other unit and service awards.
